Additionally, in the TANF State Plan, DCF has assigned to WFI/AWI the responsibility for providing a grievance process for WT participants to use when filing grievances related to the following: service delivery of TANF-funded work activities, alternative Plan Requirements, support services, diversion programs, and other workforce functions provided in the Workforce Innovation Act of 2000, Chapter 445, Florida Statutes.

b. Process for Filing a Grievance/Complaint with RWB

Under WIA, TAA, TANF/WT and FSET, career center partners, service providers, participants, and other interested parties affected by the local workforce system have the right to file a grievance/complaint. Grievances/complaints that do not allege unlawful discrimination shall be filed at the local level using the procedures established by the individual RWB.

The RWB shall receive, review, and attempt to informally resolve the initial WIA, TAA, TANF/WT, and FSET grievance/complaint. If the grievance/complaint cannot be resolved informally, then a hearing shall be held and a decision issued within the required 60 calendar days from receipt of complaint/grievance. Employment, and health and safety complaints/alleged violations for reasons other than unlawful discrimination may be forwarded to the Agency for Workforce Innovation, Office of General Counsel, 107 East Madison Street, MSC 110, Tallahassee, Florida, 32399-4128, or may be mailed directly to the appropriate federal agency as allowed by federal regulation. The last page of Section C has a list of addresses for federal agencies. A copy of the complaint/alleged violation report shall also be mailed to AWI at the above address.

c. Grievance/Complaint Review and Hearing Process at Local Level

After the RWB has received and reviewed the complaint, they shall designate a Hearing Officer(s), schedule a hearing, and notify the grievant/complainant by certified mail, return receipt, at a minimum of 15 calendar days prior to the hearing. The hearing notice shall advise the following:

1. The date, time, and place of the hearing;
2. The pertinent sections of the WIA, TAA, TANF/WT, and FSET, or any other federal regulations involved;
3. Affected parties may present witnesses or documentary evidence at the hearing;
4. Affected parties may be represented at the hearing by an attorney or other representative; and
5. The parties will receive the RWB decision within 60 calendar days from receipt of the grievance or complaint.

The hearing should be conducted according to the procedures established by the individual RWB. However, a complainant who alleges a labor standard violation may submit the complaint for binding arbitration if the collective bargaining agreement covers the parties involved.

General procedures: If a hearing is conducted, the RWB should ensure that the process, including the contents of the hearing dialogue, is transcribed or has the potential of being transcribed. For example, the hearing can be taped for transcription purposes. The recording/documentation of the hearing will allow for transcription if the grievance is appealed or escalated to a higher level.

If the RWB has: 1) conducted a hearing but the grievant/complainant is dissatisfied with or has been adversely affected by the Hearing Officer's decision; 2) not conducted a hearing within the 60 calendar days from receipt of the grievance/complaint; or 3) conducted the hearing but has not issued a decision within the mandated 60 calendar day timeframe, then the grievant/complainant may file an appeal with AWI.

d. Process for Filing an Appeal of RWB Decision or Lack of Action

The appeal should be concise (if possible, not to exceed five pages not including exhibits and attachments) and shall be sent by certified mail (return receipt), to the Agency for Workforce Innovation, Office of General Counsel, 107 East Madison Street, MSC 110, Tallahassee, Florida 32399-4128.

The appeal request shall state the facts, laws, procedures, etc. that the grievant/complainant believes to be relevant for review. The appeal must be filed with AWI within 30 calendar days of receipt of the RWB Hearing Officer's decision or within 30 calendar days after the required 60-calendar day timeframe for the RWB to act has elapsed.

The request shall include the grievant's/complainant's address where official notices will be mailed.

The state can remand the grievance/complaint back to the RWB to hold a hearing or impose other remedies to resolve the grievance/complaint.

B. COMPLAINT PROCEDURES FOR WAGNER-PEYSER EMPLOYMENT SERVICE (ES) ACTIVITIES

Background/Underlying State and Federal Policy

Federal regulations at 20 CFR Part 658, Subpart E, provide that each state shall establish and maintain an employment service complaint system that includes procedures at the local, State and Federal level for processing these complaints.

In addition, any person who believes he or she, or any specific class of individuals, has been subjected to unlawful discrimination in a Wagner-Peyser program (including employees or and applicants for employment with the agency administering the program) may file discrimination complaints by following the procedures in the Agency for Workforce Innovation Discrimination-Complaint Procedures.

Special handling procedures are required for complaints filled by Migrant and Seasonal Farm Workers (MSFW) that do not allege unlawful discrimination. The RWB shall attempt to resolve the MSFW complaint. IF MSFW complaints cannot be resolved within five working days of receipt of complaint by the RWB, the complaint form and copies of all documents in the complaint file are forwarded to the Agency for Workforce Innovation, Monitor Advocate Office, Caldwell Building-Suite 150, 170 East Madison Street, Tallahassee, Florida 32399-4133. Attention: Senior Monitor Advocate.

Complaints alleging unlawful discrimination in the MSFW program may be filed in accordance with the Agency for Workforce Innovation Discrimination-Complaint Procedures. 9

Federal regulations at 20 CFR 658.415 state that non-ES related complaints (employment, health and safety, etc.) must be forwarded as soon as possible after being received. These complaints shall be sent to Agency for Workforce Innovation, Office of General Counsel, 107 East Madison Street, MSC 110, Tallahassee, Florida, 32399-4128, or to the appropriate federal agency with a copy of the complaint sent to AWI Office of General Counsel. (See Section C for federal agencies and addresses.)

1. Regional Workforce Board/One-Stop ES Complaint/Resolution Procedures

Complaints that are related to the Wagner-Peyser employment services that do not allege unlawful discrimination are handled by the career center manager or complaint specialist. The manager/specialist will maintain a separate file for each complaint and enter the complaint on the complaint log. The local RWB will attempt to resolve all ES-related complaints.

The complaint is resolved when the complainant is satisfied with the outcome; the complainant chooses not to elevate to the next level; or when the complainant has not responded within 20 working days after correspondence has been mailed for ES complaints and within 40 working days for MSFW complaints.

If the ES complaint is not resolved within 15 working days, then the complaint and associated file documents are forwarded to the Agency for Workforce Innovation, Office of One-Stop and Program Support, Caldwell Building-Suite 105, 107 East Madison Street, Tallahassee, Florida, 32399-4133, Attention: ES Complaint Coordinator.

Within five days after the end of the quarter, the local career center manager will mail the Complaint Logs to the Senior Monitor Advocate at the address included in the MSFW procedures above.

The MSFW complaints involving an allegation of non-compliance with assurances regarding wage and hour law or other employment conditions are to be forwarded to the nearest USDOL Wage and Hour office. Check the USDOL web site at <http://www.dol.gov/esa/whd/> to find the local office nearest you.

For MSFW violations of Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) Directives, complaints should be forwarded to the USDOL, Occupational Safety and Health Administration. (See address in the chart on the last page of Section C.)

The following conditions are identified in 20 CFR 658.501(a) as the basis for discontinuation of services to employers:

1. Employer submits and refuses to alter or withdraw job orders containing specifications which are contrary to employment related laws;
2. Employer submits job order and refuses to provide assurances that the jobs offered are in compliance with employment-related laws;
3. Employer is found through field checks or otherwise to have misrepresented the terms or conditions of employment specified on the job order or to have failed to comply fully with assurances made on the job orders;
4. The career center is notified by enforcement agency that the employer has violated an employment related law;
5. Employer, following investigation of complaint, is found to have violated employment service regulations;
6. Employer refuses to accept qualified workers referred;
7. Employer refuses to cooperate in field checks; and
8. Employer repeatedly causes discontinuation proceedings to be initiated.
9. More detail on the ES Complaint System (20 CFR sections 658.411-418) can be found in the Complaint Resolution Handbook, e.g., the completion of the complaint filing, assigning, and handling ES-related complaints, complaint resolution, referrals, hearings, etc. Also, a list of referral agencies is available in the Complaint Resolution System Handbook that has been provided to each RWB, local Representative, and career center.

Note: Nothing included in this paper precludes a grievant/complainant from pursuing a remedy authorized under another federal, State, or local law.

C. REPORTING CRIMINAL FRAUD AND ABUSE, DISCRIMINATION, HEALTH AND SAFETY, AND EMPLOYMENT COMPLAINTS/VIOLATIONS

Criminal fraud and abuse, discrimination, health and safety, and employment, complaints that violate federal laws, regulations, and directives are handled differently than the program related complaints/grievances handled by local and state hearing and appeal procedures.

Under WP, discrimination complaints may be filed directly with a local-office equal opportunity representative, when such has been designated and trained, with the state agency having administrative responsibility for WP programs, or with the Civil Rights Center, U.S. Department of Labor. (See 20 CFR 658.411.)
